Introducing Greetings Gift Cards

What You'll Learn:

What Greetings Gift Cards are

Why they offer emotional & commercial value

How setup and fulfilment work with real brand use cases

Why We Created This Product...

Digital gift cards are convenient, but can lack sentiment. Customers crave tangible shared experiences.

Connect with customers around special life moments

1

Missed opportunities on birthdays, thank-yous, milestones

2

Growing demand for print + personalisation

3

This is a solution that puts you in your customers home for your brand to share their special occasions

A Gift That feels Special

The Greetings Gift Card is:

- A high-quality A5 printed greeting card (350gsm uncoated stock)
- Embedded with a perforated pop-out gift card
- Delivered directly to the recipient via 1:1 fulfilment
- Fully branded: cover, interior, and back
- Includes a personal printed message from the sender

Think of it as combining heartfelt intent with giftable convenience.

What can you customise?
